

ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

RESERVE PATROL OFFICER PROGRAM

If you have a genuine interest and desire to work in the field of law enforcement, you may qualify for the opportunity to serve your community on a volunteer basis while still maintaining your regular, full-time job.

Job Status: Volunteer (This position is unpaid.)

Key Responsibilities: Attend required training in order to perform duties of a Reserve Patrol Officer which include special event patrol, security and road patrol, case reports, among other duties. (Refer to Position Description for full list of Job Duties and Responsibilities).

Education: High School Diploma, High School Equivalency or GED

Experience: No previous police experience required.

Training Opportunities: As a Reserve Patrol Officer, you have the opportunity to participate in department-sponsored training which includes; criminal law, firearms, defensive tactics, report writing, serving subpoenas and court orders, evidence collection procedures, officer safety, etc.

Qualifications:

- Legally eligible to work in the United States
- Hold a valid Driver's License
- Reside no more than fifty (50) miles from the Angola city corporate limit
- Be at least 21 years of age
- Pass a drug screen, medical exam, driving record and background check
- Willing and able to purchase the required uniforms and equipment. Costs range from $1,500 - $2,000
- Hold a valid handgun carry permit or have the ability to obtain
- Be physically and mentally able to perform tasks, as assigned
- Be of good moral character and a proven ability to work well with others

If you feel you meet the qualifications and have the desire and the time available to devote to this program, applications packets are available at:

City of Angola - Police Station - dispatch counter
202 W. Gilmore St., Angola, IN 46703
Daily - 7:00am – 10:00pm

Applications will be accepted until positions have been filled.

Posting Dates: August 28, 2020 – until positions have been filled
 Post Locations: City Departments, city website and Facebook